REPUBLIC OF UZBEKISTAN
LAW ENFORCEMENT ACADEMY
INFORMATION LETTER

The Law Enforcement Academy of the Republic of Uzbekistan plans to hold the international scientific and practical forum "TASHKENT LAW ENFORCEMENT FORUM – 2026" on 26–27 November this year, dedicated to the 35th anniversary of the establishment of the prosecution authorities of the Republic of Uzbekistan. The forum will focus on the theme "Safeguarding Legality and Public Order: Modern Threats and New Solutions".

As part of the forum, conference proceedings comprising papers and abstracts by leading national and international experts are planned for publication in a collected volume. In this regard, scientific articles and abstracts related to the forum's theme, written in Uzbek, English or Russian, may be submitted by 1 December 2026 to the following email addresses: shayzakovshodiyor@gmail.ru, info@proacademy.uz.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE FORMATTING OF SCIENTIFIC ARTICLES AND ABSTRACTS:

1. Materials shall be accepted exclusively as attached electronic files (abstracts/articles), submitted via email or Telegram (@Shodiyor_proacademy), with the relevant thematic area indicated.
2. The text must be logically structured and free of repetition, with ideas presented clearly, concisely and coherently, and supported by scientific discussion.
3. All information provided must be accurate and reliable.
4. Each article must include its title, a brief abstract and keywords in Uzbek, Russian and English.
5. The text must be submitted in one of the following languages: Uzbek, Russian or English.
6. The text must be prepared electronically using Microsoft Word, in Times New Roman font, 16-point size, with 1.15 line spacing. Page margins must be as follows: left — 3 cm, right — 1.5 cm, top and bottom — 2 cm.
7. The article must contain scientific discussion and citations. Citations must be formatted in 12-point font, with single line spacing (1.0), and placed at the bottom of the respective page.
8. The length of scientific articles must be between 6 and 10 pages, while abstracts must be 3–4 pages long.
9. The first page of the article must include the author's full name, academic degree and title, place of employment and position, residential and work addresses, and contact telephone numbers.
10. If the author does not hold a PhD degree, the article must be accompanied by a review confirming its suitability for publication in the proceedings. The review must be prepared by a leading scholar or specialist in the relevant field, or by the head of the institution or its structural unit (department) where the author or researcher is employed.

The Organizing Committee reserves the right to select submitted papers, abstracts and articles, as well as to publish them electronically.

Materials will be accepted only if they strictly comply with the requirements set out in this letter.

Scientific articles written in foreign languages (excluding conference abstracts), with a length of at least 10 pages, reviewed by leading foreign scholars and specialists (with the relevant review attached), are planned to be considered equivalent to scientific articles published in foreign scientific journals included in the list of academic publications recommended for publishing the principal scientific results of dissertations.
